Karl Spain spent most of 2005 looking for a woman, now he's looking for an audience. Having quickly established himself as one of Ireland's top Comedians, Spain has gone from strength to strength and is currently performing live around Ireland to packed out audiences. Having burst onto the scene in 2000 as winner of the R.T.E. NEW COMEDIAN AWARD - he has now established a reputation as a top headline act and excellent MC. His proudest moment was to be chosen as part of the Irish show at the Montreal Just For Laughs Festival in 2003 and has since appeared at festivals all over the world from Dublin to Dubai via Australia and of course Kilkenny. He took his "Spain, Ireland and Beyond" tour all over the country and now comes to axis Ballymun for the House of Fun Comedy Club.

Karl Spain's television appearances include; The Late Late Show, Karl Spain Wants a Woman, The Café, The Liffey Laughs, BBC Comedy Awards, Ed Byrne's Just for Laughs and Xit File.
